Leave Policy

Leave Policy – Intro

- Regular attendance is the prerequisite for employment
- Informing about the leaves is the responsibility of every employee who is absent.
- All employees are expected to inform for the leaves with justified reasons well in advance to the reporting person, to manage the work well.
- Leave is a privilege extended by the company and not a right, Leave approvals will depend on exigencies of business and the need of employee at that time.
- Absence of three consecutive working days without any notification to Manager or HR , will be considered as Absconded and lead to termination of the employment.

How to add leave

- Full day/ half day leaves must be applied from leave request option of workspace.
- The option to apply leave can be found in workspace
- Login in workspace> go to Leave> Self> click on '+ ' to add leave request
- You can see the status of leave approval from leave request option
- In reason of leave – Appropriate leave reason should be mentioned
- Choose Leave start date and end date-
- We do not have sandwich leave rule, i.e. leave taken on Friday and Monday – is counted as 2 days and not 4 days
- Any leave which is not applied in workspace , will be counted as LWP (Loss of pay) even if leave balance is available for the employee.

Ad hoc Leave

- Any unplanned leave can be also added in leave request.
- For example – today is 10th Sep and 9th Sep was an unplanned leave. 10th Sep when you join back you can add the leave by clicking on ad hoc leave option in leave request, this should be done by next day.

Marriage Leave

- All employees, including probationers, shall be eligible for up to 21 days own marriage leave.
- Whilst on marriage leave, weekends and public holidays as declared by the Company shall be counted as leave days.
- Application for such leave should be done minimum 1 month in advance
- No emergency leave will be accepted at end of marriage leave.
- Employees must resume duty on the last day of application (i.e. 22nd day)
- Can be availed for 21 continuous days (no breakages will be allowed)
- Marriage Leave is not a paid leave. (Adjusted with leave balance, if leave balance is exhausted then LWP as per the days applicable)

Scenario 1

An employee applied marriage leave of 21 days, Out of 21 days, 16 were working days.

Let's assume the leave balance of this employee is 10 days

Then, Out of 16 – 10 will be adjusted from Leave balance and for 6 leaves Loss of pay shall be calculated

Scenario 2

An employee applied marriage leave of 18 days, Out of which 14 were working days.

Let’s assume the leave balance of this employee is 14 days

Then, all 14 days of marriage leave will be adjusted from leave balance and that employee will not bear any loss of pay.

General Guidelines for Leave

- Maximum of 10 days Leave (excluding Sick/Marriage) can be clubbed together, including official offs however ELs shall be deducted only for the working days
- Employees on leave need to be reachable through phone, to team members for any emergency
- Employees cannot avail any leave once they resign. Any leave taken during the notice period will be treated as leave without pay and shall increase the notice period accordingly.

General Guidelines for Leave (Contd.)

- No two team members/person can be on leave at same time - or Total present of any team at any given time should not be less than 2:3.
- Employees going on leave have to explain/delegate their responsibility to another team member.
- In case an employee is extending the sanctioned leave they will have to apply in writing with reason/valid proof and obtain permission before expiry of the leave originally granted to them.
- Sick leave of more than 3 days must be accompanied with a medical certificate
